

"WHAT HAVE YOU DONE?"

How would your friends describe you? Would they say you were a good person or a rascal? Hello, I'm Phil Sanders. And this is a Bible study, "In SEARCH of the Lord's Way." And today we're asking people to look at themselves to see how they've lived. Stay with us.

Welcome to In SEARCH of the Lord's Way! We're here to search the Scriptures to find out what God wants from us. When life is over, we'll look back at our lives wondering what we've done that mattered. Did we please the Lord or did we please ourselves? Were we a blessing to the people around us or did we bring them trouble? Many spend their entire lives pursuing empty paths, but the one who is faithful to God pursues righteousness. What have you done with your life? What will people remember about you? Thanks for spending time with us today, and we want to be a part of your life each week.

Many Christians are content to be Christians in name only. They want to wear the name, but they aren't willing to take their faith seriously. My friend Steve Higginbotham recently wrote about some misplaced desires of people today. He said: "We want a Savior, but we don't want a Lord. We want a crown, but we don't want a cross. We want a harvest, but we don't want to sow the seed. We want to go to Heaven, but we won't go to church. We want to grow spiritually, but we don't want to feed on his word. We want Hollywood to 'clean up its act,' but we don't want to stop watching. We want the right to pray, even in school, but we don't want to pray. We want the Ten Commandments posted, but we don't want to live by their moral principles. We want to love God, but we don't want to abhor sin. We want to die the death of the righteous, but we don't want to abandon the lifestyle of the sinner." Steve is right. People want to go to heaven, but they don't live as Christians should. What about you?

What have you done with your life? Now, if you'd like a printed copy or a CD of our study and you live in the United States, mail your request to In Search of the Lord's Way, P.O. The Edmond church will now worship in song, we'll read from Psalm 15, and consider the lives that we lead.

Our reading today comes from Psalm 15, "O LORD, who may abide in Your tent? Who may dwell on Your holy hill? He who walks with integrity, and works righteousness, And speaks truth in his heart. He does not slander with his tongue, Nor does evil to his neighbor, Nor takes up a reproach against his friend; In whose eyes a reprobate is despised, But who honors those who fear the LORD; He swears to his own hurt and does not change; He does not put out his money at interest, Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things will never be shaken," That's a reading from God's Holy Word, let's pray together. Father, we're thankful that you give us Your Word to teach us how we should live. Help us always to do Your will. This is our prayer, in the name of Jesus our Lord, Amen.

The Bible gives some interesting assessments of people's lives. For instance, Genesis 5 and verse 24 says, "Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him." Now we learn from Hebrews 11 and verse 5, "By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God." Walking with God pleases Him. James 2 and verse 23 calls Abraham "the friend of God." Are you God's friend? God said in Acts 13 verse 22, "I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will." Are you doing all the will of God?

Then, there is the evil King Jehoram who killed all of his brothers with a sword. And when he died, 2 Chronicles 21 and verse 20 says of him, "And he departed with no one's regret. They buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings." In the New Testament, we find Judas Iscariot, who stole money from the money bag and betrayed the Lord Jesus with a kiss. We also find Demas. And though Demas had once been faithful, 2 Timothy 4 and verse 10 says, "For Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica." Were you once faithful, and have you fallen away from the Lord?

The Bible teaches that we'll be judged according to our works, whether good or bad. Jesus promised in Matthew 16 and verse 27, "For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done." Now the Lord Jesus said in Revelation 2 and verse 23, "And all the churches will know that I am he who searches mind and the heart, and I will give to each of you according to your works." You see, how we live matters. Our works tell what's in our hearts, and the Lord will judge us by whether we have served Him or not.

Now, the first thing that God looks for in people is whether they believe. Hebrews 11 and verse 6 says, "And without faith it's impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him." A faithful Christian believes the gospel and he knows the love of God. His faith is not merely a belief but is a way of life. He takes Whom he believes and what God says seriously.

There are different levels of faith. Some people believe intellectually, that is, they say God exists and His way is right, but their belief doesn't influence their behavior. They are believers in their minds but not in their lives. God wants our faith to be deeper than that. He wants us to believe on the involvement level, that is, our faith should impact how we live and our values. We ought to do more than just believe Christ Jesus rose from the dead. We live in obedience to Him, because we understand that He will raise us up one day. We ought to do more than believe that Jesus is Lord; We ought to obey Him as our Lord.

Now unless our faith matters enough for us to practice it, it's not any good. We must act on what we believe. We must move from a dead faith to a living one. James 2 and verse 14 to 16 says, "What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, be warmed and filled,' without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it doesn't have works, is dead." We want a living, active faith that makes a difference in our own lives and blesses the lives of others.

Someone asks, "Well Phil, aren't we saved by faith alone?" Well while it's true that we're saved by faith, to talk about "faith alone" is to talk about a dead faith. James 2 verses 18 to 19 says, "But someone will say, 'You have faith and I have works.' Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. You believe that God is one; you do well. Well even the demons believe—and shudder!" Now saying that you have faith, but are unwilling to demonstrate that faith makes you no better than the demons who believe so strongly that they shudder at the thought of God. My friend, what are you doing with your faith?

James 2 verse 20 to 24 says, "Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless? Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar? You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works; and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness”—and he was called a friend of God. You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.”

Now when God tested Abraham, Abraham demonstrated his faith by offering up his son Isaac upon the altar. Of course, God didn't allow him to slay his son; God was testing him to see if he would obey Him. Many years earlier, God told Abraham to leave his home and family and go to a strange place. Hebrews 11 and verse 8 says, “By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.” Faith obeys! Now a dead faith talks a good game, but a living faith obeys what it believes.

John the Baptist said in John 3 and verse 36, that “whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him.” God never speaks approvingly of a faith that will not obey. The disobedient can expect one day to see the wrath of God. A believer who will not obey will never enjoy God's grace. 2 Thessalonians 1 verses 7 and 9 speaks of “when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, dealing out retribution to those who do not know God and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. These will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power.” God loves everybody, but His grace and favor is extended to those who love and obey Him.

Now because of this, we must move away from being spectators to being participants. Some say, “I love Jesus, but I don't want to be in the church.” Friends, the church is the family of Jesus, the body of Christ. If you love and want to be like Jesus, then you must come to be part of His church. The church was and is His idea and it's His family. Faith in Christ and worshiping with the church is not like going to a basketball game where we can sit in the stands and watch others on the floor. God expects each of us to sing, to pray, to listen to the Bible, to commune with Him in the Lord's Supper, and to support the work of the church. Living for God means I am busy producing fruit every day, working for His cause, carrying my cross, sharing the gospel, and blessing the lives of other people. The Lord Jesus said in John 15 verse 8, “By this is My Father glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples.” My friend, don't talk your faith, live it, live it out every day.

Ralph Grant in his book, Letters to the Seven Churches, told the story of the Franks during the Dark Ages. When the gospel came to Northern Europe, large numbers of these savage tribes of the Franks were being baptized. And these people had been warriors for generations, so teaching them the ways of peace was pretty difficult. They were not sure they wanted to give up their savage fighting, so they went into the waters of baptism holding their battle-axes up out of the water. They would say, “This hand has never been baptized!” You see, they were willing to make a commitment to Christ in some things but would not give up their fighting.

Of course, one is either completely baptized, or he's not really baptized at all. There's no such thing as baptizing “everything but the hand.” God only accepts us on His terms; and He will not accept anything less than a total commitment. God doesn't want some parts of you; He wants all of you. And this is one reason baptism into Christ is an immersion of the entire person in water; baptism is a total commitment to God. Romans 6 and verse 4 says, “Therefore we've been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.” The whole person is buried and raised with Christ, the whole person has all his sins forgiven, and the whole person rises from the water to walk in newness of life.

We sing the hymn, “All to Jesus I Surrender.” Have you truly surrendered all to the Lord Jesus? Are you totally committed? You know, listening to the way some Christians talk, I wonder if their tongues were ever baptized? Some continually gossip, and others constantly complain. Some tell dirty jokes, while others take the name of the Lord in vain. Some Christians tell half-truths, and others are given to slander. Taming the tongue is difficult, but becoming a Christian means keeping a close guard on our mouths. James sadly said in James 3 and verse 10, "that from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be this way."

The selfish and evil thinking of some Christians makes you wonder if their minds were ever baptized? Some are full of greed, while others are full of pride. They think little of others and they step on others to get an advantage. Becoming a Christian means putting Christ first, others second, and ourselves last. Philippians 2 verses 3 to 4 says, "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others."

Now considering what some people watch on television or at the movies, you'd wonder if their eyes and their ears were baptized? Some Christians have grown callous to sinful words, to nudity, to violence, to anger, and to all kinds of immoral behavior. Years ago, people expected the movie industry to maintain some moral standards. And if a movie contained ungodly language or ungodly behavior, people walked out and told the theater managers they didn't care for such indecent movies. Today, one can hardly go to a movie or watch a television program that doesn't have indecent language or behavior. My friend, what are you letting into your heart?

How some people treat others, makes you wonder if their hearts were baptized? Some people simply don't know how to be patient with others or how to forgive. They seem to have forgotten the words of our Lord in Matthew 7 and verse 12, "So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets." Many people live with anger, fear, or hatred in their hearts. Paul said in Ephesians 4 verses 31 to 32, "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

My friend, how are you living? Do you follow God? Whenever someone looks at your life, are you a good person, or are you a rascal? Let's pray together. Father, we pray that You'll help us to live good and holy lives that honor You. Help us to walk by faith, and to love You with all of our heart and soul. In Jesus Name, Amen!

God sets the bar high for those who would follow Him. The Lord Jesus said in Luke 14:26 and 27, "If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple." God expects us to love Him more than anything else, and to put Him first.

Someone asks, "Well Phil, aren't we saved by grace?" Yes, we are saved by the grace of God; and that grace is a precious gift that can't be earned. We can't obligate God to save us. But because the gift is precious, God examines our lives to see whether we have genuinely received the gift or took it for granted. The Lord Jesus out of love paid a very high price to save you from sin, and me from sin. And it matters to Him how we receive that gift. Now if we care so little for Him that we ignore His teaching and live as we want to, why should it surprise you or me, if the gift that we neglected was lost? You see, the Lord will judge you and me according to our response to His grace. Have you lived in a way that shows that you love the Lord?

You know, to enjoy the gift of salvation, we must lovingly respond to His grace by faith, by repenting of our sins, by confessing Jesus Christ as the Son of God, and by being baptized into Christ.

Now when you love the Lord, you don't argue with the Lord about what to do but simply obey Him. Faith and obedience are two sides of the same coin. We obey because we believe, and our obedience reveals our faith. Acts 2:38 still says, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Won't you do that today?
