Dealing With Guilt

Titus 3:3-7

Longer passages are not quoted in the study sheet, but they can be read in the accompanying transcript.

You've probably looked at yourself in the _____ and asked "Why did you do that?" A guilty conscience is _____ to all. Whatever spiritual, moral, or social problem we face, God has the _____ in His Word! The problems that you _____ are new to you, but not new to this world. The struggles you face are struggles many _____ have faced throughout time. The Scriptures describe these _____ and God's answers to them. When people humbly and penitently come to God _____ answers, He hears their cries and helps them. By going to His Word, you can _____ the answers to your struggles, too.

David described the _____ he felt from knowing he had sinned. After David sinned with Bathsheba and slaughtered Uriah in battle, he felt the _____ of his conscience. David felt the pain of unresolved sin, saying, "When I kept _____, my bones grew old Through my groaning all the day long. For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; My vitality was turned into the drought of summer" (Psalm 32:3-4). David also said, "For evils beyond _____ have surrounded me; My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to see; They are more numerous than the hairs of my head, And my heart has failed me" (Psalm 40:12).

The chief meaning of the word "conscience" in the New Testament includes _____ than knowing something. It includes a moral _____ of a conscious act. In Acts 5, Ananias and Sapphira pretended to offer the whole gift of the sale of their land to God, but knowingly kept back some for themselves, and lied to the Holy Spirit. They consciously lied. God knew it, too! You cannot _____ God by pretending. God always knows.

Our reading today comes from Paul's Letter to Titus 3:3-7.

We have a battle between good and evil going on inside our _____. The Lord Jesus said to sleepy Peter, James, and John, "Keep watching and praying that you may not enter into temptation; the _____ is willing, but the _____ is weak" (Matthew 26:41). While we would like to practice what's good, we find ourselves weak and doing what is _____. When we do what is good, we're at _____ with ourselves; but when we do what is evil, we regret and even hate what we've done. Paul explained, "For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am of flesh, sold into bondage to _____. For what I am doing, I do not understand; for I am not practicing what I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate" (Romans 7:14-15).

The conscience _____ us nags and accuses us. Romans 2:14-16 says, "For when Gentiles who do not have the Law do instinctively the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law to themselves, in that they show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them, on the day when, according to my gospel, God will judge the secrets of men through Christ Jesus." The truth of this remark is evident since God _____ man's conscience both negatively and positively – negatively as the instrument of judgment, and positively as the means of guidance. Few experiences in life are more miserable than a guilty conscience. Jeremiah wrote, “‘For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, Yet your iniquity is marked before Me,’ says the Lord GOD” (Jeremiah 2:22).

We also know what we've done. People handle _____ in a variety of ways. Some would rather _____ to themselves about sin than face a guilty conscience. I'm amazed at how society has _____ its views of right and wrong. Society has _____ things upside down. Instead of using God's Word as the _____ of right and wrong, people have trusted in their own hearts. Some have trusted their _____ rather than listen to God. They have made themselves their own _____. The Lord God said, “The heart is more deceitful than all else And is desperately sick; Who can understand it? I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the mind, Even to give to each man according to his ways, According to the results of his deeds” (Jeremiah 17:9-10).

When people try to change what the Scriptures say to excuse sin as fashionable, they _____ themselves. The prophet Isaiah said, “Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness; Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!” (Isaiah 5:20). You may justify sin in your own _____, but that doesn't mean that God approves. This approach, changing sin, isn't new. The Jews in Jeremiah's day worshiped pagan gods and practiced immorality even though they _____ better. Jeremiah 6:15 says, “‘Were they ashamed because of the abomination they have done? They were not even ashamed at all; They did not even know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; At the time that I punish them, They shall be cast down,’ says the LORD.”

You can lie to yourself about moral matters, but God sees and knows the _____. God said, “For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not _____ from My face, nor is their iniquity concealed from My eyes” (Jeremiah 16:17). When people live impure lives, it becomes noticeable not only to God but to everyone. The way they talk, the way they act, and the way they treat other people make it _____ that God isn't in their lives. Titus 1:15-16 says, “To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are _____. They profess to know God, but by their _____ they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.”

We need God in our lives. We need to hear His Word, to worship Him, and to pray to Him each day. We need the saving _____ of Jesus Christ to transform our lives. Apart from the blood of Christ, people can't find salvation; the unredeemed man is “without strength” to save himself (Romans 5:6-8). We need saving, rescuing, and transforming! Paul said that Jesus “gave Himself for our sins, that He might _____ us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father” (Galatians 1:4). God wanted something _____ for people than a life enslaved to sin and headed for wrath.

Romans 6:20-22 says, “For when you were slaves of sin, you were _____ in regard to righteousness. Therefore what benefit were you then deriving from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things is _____. But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you derive your benefit, resulting in sanctification, and the outcome, _____ life.” You don’t have to live ashamed any longer. You can leave enslavement to sin; and you can be made holy; and you can have eternal life.

Read Titus 2:11-14. The grace of God is not simply just for forgiveness; it also causes transformation so sinners can become _____. God wants something better for you than languishing in guilt and shame!

The Lord God “has delivered us from the _____ of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins” (Colossians 1:13-14). If God had not delivered us, we’d still be living miserable and hopeless lives in sin and guilt. God wants something better for us!

Read how Paul spoke of his conversion in 1 Timothy 1:12-15. God’s forgiveness opens the _____ for us to forgive ourselves. If God could forgive us, we can forgive, too!

The apostle Paul never _____ that he had once been Saul of Tarsus; he realized that he had been saved in order to _____ others to salvation. He spoke as one delivered from the captivity of sin. He understood what it meant to be _____ of his terrible sins, so he desperately sought for the salvation of everyone. He could say, “I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. So, for my part, I am eager to _____ the gospel to you also who are in Rome. For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the _____ of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek” (Romans 1:14-16). To the Jew, a Roman would be an enemy; but Paul was eager to take that message even to his enemies in Rome. Paul _____ even his enemies.

God wants something _____ for you. First Timothy 2:3-4 says, “This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be _____ and to come to the knowledge of the truth.” God wants you to know the _____ about sin and salvation. He wants you to be saved from sin.

A clean conscience, brought about by love and obedience to the gospel, brings _____ of heart and mind. Romans 5:1 says, “Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” First Peter 3:21 reveals how _____ not only is the time of our salvation but also brings about a good conscience. It says, “Corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an _____ to God for a good conscience—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.” When we’re baptized we are calling upon God to save us and to cleanse our consciences. Remember what Ananias told the apostle Paul in Acts 22:16, “Now why do you delay? Get up and be baptized, and _____ away your sins, calling on His name.”

In another Psalm, David cried out, “Make me _____ joy and gladness, That the bones You have broken may rejoice. Hide Your face from my _____, And blot out all my iniquities. Create in me a _____ heart, O God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from Your presence, And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the _____ of Your salvation, And uphold me by Your generous Spirit” (Psalm 51:8-12).

The New Testament also provides occasions of joy when one _____ the gospel and becomes a child of God in Christ. The Bible says, “Now when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he (the eunuch) went on his way rejoicing” (Acts 8:39). The Lord Jesus said in Matthew 13:44, “The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid again; and from _____ over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.” There is no greater joy than knowing that you are right with God, that your sins are forgiven, and that you have a home in heaven! I can’t imagine living even one day or one hour without God’s grace and without hope.

I don’t know where you are in your relationship with God. You may be living with guilt and without hope. You may be indifferent to God, and His promises, and His commandments. You may have once practiced your _____ but have drifted from it. You may be one of those who rewrite the Scriptures to say what you want. Please don’t remain in _____, outside the grace of God. While God loves everybody; He wants everyone to be saved, God makes no promise to save those who ignore or defy His will.

David understood the _____ of being forgiven and trusting in God. So he wrote, “How blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose _____ is covered! How blessed is the man to whom the LORD does not impute iniquity, And in whose spirit there is no deceit!” (Psalm 32:1-2). When we’re honest with God and honest with ourselves about sin, we’ll _____. The consequences of sin are great. God will punish evildoers.

We must not presume that we can live any way we _____, and the grace of God will still cover us. That idea didn’t come from God; it came from _____. Second Peter 3:9 says, “The Lord is not slow about His _____, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.”

When you feel guilty for what you’ve thought, said, or done, _____! Knowing you’re guilty will bring you all the _____ that David felt or Paul felt from having sinned. Paul spoke openly about sin to the Romans, about their choices, whether to live in sin or in righteousness. He said, “Do you not know that when you present yourselves to someone as slaves for obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you _____, either of sin resulting in death, or of obedience resulting in righteousness? But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you became obedient from the _____ to that form of teaching to which you were committed, and having been freed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness” (Romans 6:16-18).

The good news of Christ is His grace that brings freedom from sin! You can choose freedom from sin! You don’t have to stay a slave to sin and all the guilt and shame that comes with it! When you place your faith in Christ Jesus and confess Him as the Son of God, when you repent of your sins and turn to the Lord’s way, and when you’re baptized into Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, you cease to be the slave of sin! Christ sets you free from sin, and you are free indeed! (John 8:36). You are free from sin, free from guilt, and free from shame. You can begin acting like a child of God and live righteously. You can have peace with God and with your soul. I cannot think of any greater joy or privilege than to have the hope of eternal life! Are you right with God?

Dealing With Anxiety Philippians 4:4-9

Longer passages are not quoted in the study sheet, but they can be read in the accompanying transcript.

The future is uncertain, and life is _____ of challenges. How can we deal with it? Today, we're exploring _____ to deal with all of our anxieties. I'm thankful God has made His _____ known to us in the Bible. The Lord's way leads to _____ today and salvation forever. God's way _____ us with comfort and assurance, with grace and joy, and with hope and promise. Nothing will bring you greater blessing than having a _____ relationship with the Lord. The answers that you need to the most pressing problems of life are _____ in Jesus Christ and His Word. And that's why we continually point to the Lord's way.

Life challenges us with _____ worries and pressures. Many adults find it _____ to get a good night's sleep, worried about keeping appointments, growing financial problems, declining health, or a host of family difficulties. One lady recently told me, "I just can't _____ worrying about things. I keep wondering what's going to _____ to me." This lady believed in God but she took her _____ off of God and onto her troubles. This left her anxious and upset. She had gotten into the _____ of worrying about things that she couldn't change—and life was miserable. What could she do?

The world in which Jesus lived was also filled with heartaches and anxieties, just as today's world. He could _____ the hurts and problems people faced every day. He knew about poverty and disease and grief. In His day, there were no hospitals, no social security, no fire houses, and no ambulances. Life was never _____. In the most well-known sermon ever preached, Jesus devoted ten verses to the _____ of worrying. In just a few verses, he gave such a great comfort and reassurance to His followers that it is worth our time to listen closely to His wisdom.

Our reading today comes from Philippians 4:4-9; it gives the _____ to finding peace.

The Lord Jesus said, "For this reason I say to you, do not be worried about your _____, as to what you will eat or what you will drink; nor for your body, as to what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the _____ of the air, that they do not sow, nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not _____ much more than they? And who of you by being worried can _____ a single hour to his life? And why are you worried about clothing? Observe how the lilies of the field grow; they do not toil nor do they spin, yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his _____ clothed himself like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of _____ faith! Do not _____ then, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear for clothing?' For the Gentiles eagerly seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you _____ all these things. But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be _____ to you. So do not worry about tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself. Each day has enough _____ of its own” (Matthew 6:25-34).

Jesus said, “Do not be worried about your life.” Older versions say, “take no _____ for your life.” In today’s language, this phrase suggests that we’re to live _____ care or caution; but that’s not the point. Jesus was cautioning against the kind of anxiety that _____ God and that sees no hope for tomorrow. Faith sees the _____ of God in tough times; it trusts that God will take _____ of us. Anxiety, on the other hand, is full of doubt and fear. Anxiety is doubt at work; it is always uncertain. It fears the _____ and ignores the watching care of a loving Father in heaven. It forgets God’s promises.

Verse 25 asks, “Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing?” If God, our Father, has given us life, surely we can _____ him to provide the food and clothes we need to sustain life. Anyone who has given the extravagant gift will not be stingy or careless with the smaller gifts. Paul said, “He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him over for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us _____ things?” (Romans 8:32).

In verse 26, Jesus speaks about the _____ and how God feeds them. They don’t _____ about piling up goods for an unforeseen future; and yet their lives continue because God feeds them. Jesus asked, “And who of you by being worried can add a single _____ to his life?” (verse 27). Other versions translate this, “which can add a cubit to his stature?” (“eighteen inches to his height”). Either way, worry is _____. It doesn’t help matters. Anxiety, rather than helping you with your problem, causes nervousness, sleeplessness, and irritability. An anxious person often jumps the gun and does things hastily, which may cause _____ problems than he desired.

In verses 28 to 30, Jesus pointed to the _____ of the field. He said, “And why are you worried about clothing? Observe how the lilies of the field grow; they do not toil nor do they spin, yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you? You of little faith!” God takes _____ of His people. If he hasn’t forgotten the wildflower which used to help start a fire, now He won’t _____ you. You’re worth far more.

Jesus called the anxious one a person of “little _____,” little trust in His goodness and kindness. The Lord compares the worrier to the Gentiles, who don’t _____ God. He said, “Do not worry then, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear for clothing?’ For the Gentiles eagerly _____ all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.” You can expect a pagan or an unbeliever not to know about God, but Jesus expects _____ out of His followers. When one knows God, one should not have to _____ in worry and anxiety about the necessities of life.

Jesus’ prescription for the Christian, the believer, is to “_____ first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. So do not _____ about tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own” (Matthew 6:33-34). We must learn to live _____ day at a time. If we live each day as it comes, and do each task as it arises, then we’ll have the strength and the grace of God to _____ us through each step. Handle the demands of each day as it comes, not fretting over unknown things, which may _____ happen. Anxiety is more about what we don't know than the One we do know.

Anxiety can't _____ the past, however hard we try. Instead of rehearsing in our hearts old failures, old hurts, old sins, and old injuries, we're better off to _____ from our past. That way we won't make the same mistakes in the _____. Worry about the future is _____. The biggest troubles are usually those that _____ happen. Our imagination may _____ up things that never happen. Anxiety is a _____ of effort and time since the future that really happens is hardly ever as bad as the future of our fears. Don't let an over-active imagination keep you from _____ life, a life of joy and peace, free from upset and worry. God's prophet said, "The steadfast of mind You will _____ in perfect peace, Because he trusts in You" (Isaiah 26:31). Peace is the opposite of fear and doubt. A person at peace is confident and unafraid.

Read Philippians 4:4-9, which we read earlier, that has the prescription for anxiety.

First, _____ in the Lord always. Consider how God has _____ you. Count your blessings every single day. When your _____ is on the Lord and His love for you, you won't get caught up in worrying over the future. You'll keep your trust and focus on the good God and what He has done for you!

Second, cultivate a forbearing spirit—one that doesn't react hastily and negatively to everything that happens. Develop a _____ spirit of reasonableness. Grow a heart of understanding that gives _____ the benefit of the doubt.

Third, remember the Lord is _____ or "at hand." He sees and knows everything that happens to you. He's not distant or unconcerned. God is your Father, and He'll be very near to you to _____ you when you need Him.

Fourth, _____ worrying about anything. Get out of the habit of getting _____ about every unhappy event and disappointment. Examine yourself. How do you react to problems? Do you get emotionally worked up over every little thing? You don't have to worry, you can _____ something.

Fifth, in every circumstance _____. Pray with an attitude of thanksgiving. Tell God what you _____. Don't hold back. Let Him know. He's _____ to listen and to help answer your requests. When you ask, the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus. God will place a guard all around you to keep you secure and so that you might be at peace. God's help means that you can take _____ of your heart and mind. You don't have to be a slave of anxiety and doubt and fear. You can be at rest with God.

Sixth, decide now where you want your _____ to live. We decide what we _____ about all day long. We make the _____ that affect our happiness or our misery. Your emotional life will _____ what you choose to think about. Paul said, "Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, dwell on these things" (Philippians 4:8). Some folks dwell on the ugly, the depressing, the sinful, the impure, the failures, and the critical. It is no wonder their attitudes in life are sour and pessimistic.

Seventh, practice _____ God's will. Paul said, "The things you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, _____ these things, and the God of peace will be with you” (Philippians 4:9). When people _____ what they have learned and seen in the Word of God and in genuine Christianity, they’ll _____ a peaceful relationship with God. The righteous man can go to bed at night with _____ in his heart, but the wicked man continually worries his sins will be found out. He’s always scared and hiding something. The loving person finds peace with _____, but the hateful person’s life is filled with strife and tension.

Solomon said, “My son, do not _____ my teaching, But let your heart keep my commandments; For length of days and years of life And peace they will add to you. Do not let kindness and truth _____ you; Bind them around your neck, Write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find _____ and good repute In the sight of God and man. Trust in the LORD with all your _____ And do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He will make your paths straight. Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and turn away from evil. It will be healing to your body and refreshment to your bones” (Proverbs 3:1-8). The more we follow the will of God, the more we’ll find the peace and grace God gives.

When you’re at peace with yourself, at peace with others, and at peace with God, you’ll find _____ to worry about. The _____ way to peace is through listening to God and through following His Word. Perhaps one reason people are so uptight and anxious is they’ve never _____ the peace that God gives. Paul said, “Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have _____ with God through our Lord Jesus Christ” (Romans 5:1). It is through _____ in Christ and obedience to His will that we enter the peace of God. Don’t let another day go by without God’s peace in your life. Come to the Lord. Obey the gospel and find God’s wonderful peace.

All the water in the world, however hard it tried, could never, never sink a ship unless it got _____. All the hardships of this world, might wear you pretty thin, but they won’t hurt you, one least bit, unless you let them in.

I ask people I counsel from time to time, “Who _____ your mind? Who’s in charge of what you think?” We _____ what we’ll think about and what we’ll ignore. The best thing we can do with worry is to set our _____ on something else. The more we _____ on the Lord, the less we’ll worry about things that don’t matter or things that may never happen.

The apostle Peter said, “casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you” (1 Peter 5:7). If you let worries _____ you, you’ll be overloaded and stressed. But if you give them to the Lord, you can live free. Occasionally people cast their anxieties on Jesus and then take them back. Once you’ve put a matter in God’s hands, trust Him to take care of it. Leave it in His hands.

Draw close to God in faith, love Him, and obey Him. If you want God as your Father, then obey Him as you would a father. Have you become a Christian? Believe, trust, and love the Lord! Repent of your sins! Confess the name of Jesus and be baptized, immersed in water for the forgiveness of your sins. When you’re baptized the Lord will wash away your sins (Acts 22:16). You will be born again (John 3:5). By faith, when you’re baptized, you’ll become a child of God (Galatians 3:26-27). You can start a whole new life today by responding to the Lord’s invitation to follow Him. The way of the Lord leads to peace.

Dealing With Discouragement

Psalm 23

Longer passages are not quoted in the study sheet, but they can be read in the accompanying transcript.

Troubles come to all of us, and they _____ us discouraged. How can we _____ with the problems of discouragement? God is the _____ of every good thing and every perfect gift (James 1:17); and He knows how to _____ us in every circumstance of life. His Word gives us wisdom that cannot _____. If we will listen closely to what God teaches and apply it to our lives, we'll find the answers to our problems and struggles. Don't give up! God has an answer!

Wise Solomon, by inspiration, said, "The spirit of a man can _____ his sickness, But as for a broken spirit who can bear it?" (Proverbs 18:14). Perhaps you've been through a difficult time, and it's _____ you down and discouraged. Perhaps your health is declining, and you can't stop it. Perhaps you've lost a loved one or your job. Perhaps you feel life won't get any better. We all get discouraged when things fail to meet our expectations, and we can easily lose heart and hope.

Proverbs 3:5-7 promises, "Trust in the LORD with all your heart And do not _____ on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He will make your _____ straight. Do not be _____ in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and turn away from evil." David trusted in the Lord and prevailed over Goliath (1 Samuel 17). Elijah trusted in the Lord and prevailed over 850 prophets of Baal and Asherah (1 Kings 18). Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego trusted in the Lord and prevailed over the fiery furnace in Daniel 3; Daniel trusted in the Lord and prevailed over the lions in Daniel 6. Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and God will make your paths straight.

Our reading, today, comes from the best known Psalm of all the Bible, Psalm 23.

What a great promise and a great God we serve.

Solomon wrote, "A joyful heart makes a cheerful face, But when the heart is _____, the spirit is broken" (Proverbs 15:13). Again, he said, "A joyful heart is good medicine, But a broken spirit dries up the bones" (Proverbs 17:22). Some event or series of events may have _____ your spirit and caused you to lose heart.

Discouragement is a _____ experience. Never imagine that you're the _____ to face some difficult struggle. Others have faced these _____. David once remarked, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at _____. Behold, I would wander far away, I would lodge in the wilderness" (Psalm 55:4-8). We all wish we could run away from our present circumstances, but we can't run away from _____. The Lord Jesus said, "Each day has enough _____ of its own" (Matthew 6:34).

Sometimes our troubles overwhelm us, and we suppose _____ has somehow forgotten us. David felt like that. He said, "I will say to God my rock, 'Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? As a shattering of my bones, my adversaries revile me, While they say to me all day long, 'Where is your God?'" (Psalm 42:9-10). David answers his question and finds _____, “Why are you in despair, O my soul? And why have you become disturbed within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him, The help of my countenance and my God” (verse 11).

Several of God’s people have gone through _____ where they felt lost and alone, discouraged by their circumstances. When Jezebel threatened to kill Elijah, he fled to the wilderness. He finally sat down under a juniper tree, waiting and wanting to _____. He said, “It is enough; now, O Lord, take my life, for I am not better than my fathers” (1 Kings 19:4). God, however, had more _____ for Elijah to do. Jeremiah, the prophet, preached to the people of Jerusalem for forty years and yet _____ rejection and persecution. He said, “Woe to me, my mother, that you have borne me As a man of strife and a man of contention to all the land! I have not lent, nor have men lent money to me, Yet everyone _____ me” (Jeremiah 15:10).

Even Jesus had _____ that were extremely difficult. When Jesus went to the Garden of Gethsemane, Matthew 26:37-38 says, “And He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be grieved and distressed. Then He said to them, ‘My soul is deeply grieved, to the point of _____; remain here and keep watch with Me.’” Jesus went a little beyond them, and fell on His face and _____. Have you ever felt so discouraged you wish you could _____? Jesus felt that way, but He put His Father’s will first. He said, “Not my will but Yours be done.”

Paul and Silas had a _____ day in Philippi. They healed a young lady who was demon-possessed. The owners of that slave girl saw that they were going to lose money, so they had them _____ and accused them of teaching customs unlawful to Romans. Paul and Silas received many blows with rods, were thrown into prison, and had their feet fastened in the stocks. What did Paul and Silas do? They _____ and they _____ hymns to God (Acts 16:25). They were suffering, yes, but they never quit on God.

When Jesus traveled through Israel, He _____ discouraged people. Matthew 9:36-38 says, “Seeing the people, He _____ compassion for them, because they were distressed and dispirited like sheep without a shepherd. Then He said to His disciples, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are _____. Therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.’” Jesus encouraged His disciples to pray for workers who could _____ the people the truth. Perhaps you are discouraged with what you are being _____, or you feel discouraged because of the gospel _____ that religious leaders are failing to teach. Many think they can improve on what the Scriptures teach, but they end up _____ people to confusion and chaos.

If you’re discouraged, consider what God can do to encourage your _____. There is hope! God can make a _____. Psalm 147:3 says of God, “He heals the brokenhearted And binds up their wounds.” You may think you’re facing your problem _____, but God sees and knows what is going on. He’s there with you.

Paul found himself troubled by a _____ problem, a problem he had to live with. God wouldn’t take it _____. He describes the experience: “Because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me—to keep me from exalting myself!

Concerning this I implored the Lord three times that it might leave me. And He has said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness.' Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong" (2 Corinthians 12:7-10).

You might think God was _____ in refusing to take away Paul's thorn in the flesh, whatever it was. God was keeping Paul _____ and teaching him an important lesson about problems. Christ's _____ shines the brightest when we're at our darkest. His power is greatest when we're at our weakest. Paul changed his _____ about problems. They are opportunities to see the power of God working in us. God doesn't have to work a _____ to work in our lives. His grace is powerful enough to show His love and His favor toward us.

Discouragement often comes when we _____ on all the things that we don't have, rather than recall all the things that we do have. James 1:17 says, "Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow." Remember who you are. You are God's _____. First Peter 2:9-10 says, "But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, so that you may _____ the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; for you once were not a people, but now you are the people of GOD; you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy." There's no greater blessing than to be God's chosen people, His children.

Remember that you have a _____ much better than your present. Your troubles today don't _____ you won't have God's blessing in the future. The apostle Paul suffered greatly for his _____. He revealed how much he had _____ for Christ. Read 2 Corinthians 11:23-28.

There's more than this in the life of Paul and in his thinking. He said, "For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not _____ to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us" (Romans 8:18). David said, "I would have despaired unless I had _____ that I would see the goodness of the LORD In the land of the living" (Psalm 27:13). Heaven still awaits, and nothing can stop the _____ of God.

Your troubles are not all _____. James 1:2-4 says, "Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various _____, knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. And let endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing." Your troubles may be the very thing strengthening and making you the _____ person God wants you to be. Attitude makes the difference. Things happen that you didn't choose, but you can choose how you _____ to them. You can get angry; you can feel defeated; or you can look for what they teach you and feel a blessing. Stay faithful to the Lord, and He'll _____ your struggles to make you stronger, a more complete Christian.

David said, "It is _____ for me that I was afflicted, That I may _____ Your statutes" (Psalm 119:71). Sometimes it takes a period of humbling before we see the need to _____. Sometimes it takes opening our hearts to a problem that makes us want to find a solution and comfort. The down times educate us for the _____.

Don't stop there. Your experiences of overcoming or living with a struggle can lead you to _____ others who face the same problem. You understand what God has _____ for you. You can give _____ to someone who is discouraged. Second Corinthians 1:3-5 says, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction so that we will be _____ to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For just as the sufferings of Christ are ours in abundance, so also our comfort is abundant through Christ."

We all struggle when we face a problem for the _____ time. We want to handle it _____. If you don't know how to deal with your struggles, those you're facing, then _____ God's Word and remember James 1:5-8: "But if any of you lacks _____, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him. But he must ask in _____ without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the _____. For that man ought not to _____ that he will receive anything from the Lord, being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways."

God knows all our problems; and with God's _____, we can stay faithful. Nothing is too _____ for God to handle; and when you hold to God, you're in His hands. We walk by faith and not by sight. God told Israel, "Though youths grow weary and tired, And vigorous young men stumble badly, Yet those who _____ for the LORD Will gain new strength; They will mount up with wings like eagles, They will run and not get tired, They will walk and not become weary" (Isaiah 40:30-31). Again, He said, "Do not _____, for I am with you; Do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely I will help you, Surely I will uphold you with My righteous right hand" (Isaiah 41:10). If you hold fast to God, He will hold fast to you.

When I'm down from facing bad news, I like to remember 2 Corinthians 4:16-18, which says, "Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our _____ man is decaying, yet our _____ man is being renewed day by day. For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far _____ all comparison, while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are _____."

Ella Wheeler Wilcox wrote a poem that speaks true to life. "One ship sails East, And another West, By the self-same winds that blow, 'Tis the _____ of the sails And not the gales, That tells the way we go. Like the winds of the sea Are the waves of time, As we journey along through life, 'Tis the set of the _____, That determines the goal, And not the calm or the strife."

In what direction have you set your soul? Do you have _____ in God, or have you given up on God? Do you still _____ for a home in heaven? I'm praying that you're prepared to live with God forever. To be prepared you must have _____ in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and be willing to _____ it. Repent of your sins, _____ from evil, and follow the Lord Jesus. Then be _____, immersed in water, for the forgiveness of your sins. When you do, God will wash away your sins, make you His child, and add you to His church. As a Christian, stay faithful to Christ and His church.

Dealing With Pain Lamentations 3:21-25

Longer passages are not quoted in the study sheet, but they can be read in the accompanying transcript.

From the time we're born, we struggle with the _____ of pain. Pain affects us all, but _____ do we deal with it? The Scriptures give us an assurance, even in the _____ times of life. Suffering is not pleasant for anyone, and questions arise about _____ we suffer. The Scriptures are not _____ about suffering for God sees and knows everything that happens. The Scriptures reassure us of His compassion when our bodies and our hearts ache.

We all face suffering. Job 14:1 says, "Man who is born of a woman is few of days and _____ of trouble." He's certainly right. Even if everything seems fine today, we don't know what will happen tomorrow. Proverbs 27:1 says, "Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring." No one is immune to suffering. Ecclesiastes 9:11 says, "Again I saw that under the sun the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to the intelligent, nor favor to those with knowledge, but time and chance happen to them all."

Some suffering comes upon us suddenly; it's traumatic and devastating. Other causes of suffering are chronic and unrelenting; they _____ us down over time. Those who have faced the cruelty of pain, whether short or long, need the _____ and help of God. Some think pain and suffering means God doesn't _____, but God knows our pain. Others question God's goodness if they suffer pain or loss, but the God of the Bible is the God who loves us enough to send His Son, Jesus, to _____ for us. First Peter 3:18 says, "For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might _____ us to God." Christ suffered, too!

Our reading today comes from the Book of Lamentations 3:21-25.

Where do trouble and pain come from? If you're asking why one hurts and another is spared, we can't give a specific _____. We don't know why. Some who endure great pain _____ God for all their suffering. Lamentations 3:33 says about God, "for he does not _____ from his heart or grieve the children of men." God didn't pick you out of all the earth to intentionally afflict or grieve you with suffering.

The suffering in our world _____ as a consequence to Adam's sin. God placed thorns and thistles on the earth. God told Adam, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, 'You shall not eat of it,' cursed is the ground because of you; in _____ you shall eat of it all the days of your life; thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you; and you shall eat the plants of the field" (Genesis 3:17-18). Disease and death has followed humanity since the beginning, and everyone follows the same journey to the _____. There are no exceptions. Romans 5:12 says, "Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men _____ all sinned." We're imperfect people, vulnerable people living in a _____ filled with disease and natural disasters. None of us can _____ to be exempt from pain or from death.

Sometimes people ask, “Why doesn’t God _____ all sin and suffering?” If He stopped it all, He would stop you, too. He would take away your _____ will and freedom to experience anything that might be a danger. Instead of being a human made in God’s _____, you’d be a puppet or robot. God knew that giving Adam and Eve freedom meant that they might, of their own will, sin against Him. They sinned and caused untold suffering on all people, even the innocent.

Some of our suffering, sadly, comes from our _____ making. Galatians 6:7-8 says, “Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.” People tend to _____ themselves about their sins and assume their sins won’t hurt anything; but those who sow sinful things reap a bitter harvest. Psalm 7:14-16 says, “Behold, the wicked man conceives evil and is pregnant with mischief and gives birth to lies. He makes a pit, digging it out, and falls into the hole that he has made. His mischief returns upon his own head, and on his own skull his violence descends.” People imagine they can do anything they _____ and don’t realize the heavy price they pay for sin. You can’t keep on sinning and expect life to _____ you with good things. Your life will have a lot of brokenness until that time comes when you _____ your ways and repent.

Psalm 32:10 says “Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who _____ in the LORD.” In spite of our sins, God still treats His children _____ than we deserve. When Ezra recognized all the wickedness of the people of Israel, he observed, “And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, seeing that you, our God, have punished us _____ than our iniquities deserved” (Ezra 9:13).

God disciplines His people, but He does it because He _____ them and acts to lead them to be better people. Hebrews 12:5-7 says, “And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons? ‘My son, do not regard _____ the discipline of the Lord, nor be weary when reproved by him. For the Lord disciplines the one he _____, and chastises every son whom he receives.’ For it is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as _____. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline?”

Hebrews 12:10-11 explains, “For they (speaking of our parents) disciplined us for a short time as it seemed _____ to them, but he (God) disciplines us for our _____, that we may share his holiness. For the moment all discipline seems _____ rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.”

Some suffering comes from the evil deeds that _____ people commit. Hatred, anger, war, terrorism, greed, lust, power, pride, and selfishness lead people to do unspeakably evil things and cause _____ suffering to others. Sin is at the foundation of so much fighting and violence. James 4:1-2 explains, “What causes quarrels and what causes fights among you? Is it not this, that your passions are at _____ within you? You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel.” Paul told the Ephesians elders, “the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me” (Acts 20:23). The apostle Paul suffered much from his _____ for preaching Jesus Christ.

Chronic pain can _____ us to doubt and wonder whether God understands or cares. Read what Hebrews 4:14-16 says. When you are hurting, draw close to God and _____. The One who bore the cross knows what pain is.

Some imagine Jesus could not know anything about _____, but that would be a mistaken assumption. Jesus came to earth and experienced all the _____ that we face and more. Philippians 2:6-8 says Jesus, “though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but _____ himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming _____ to the point of death, even death on a cross.”

Because He took on _____, Jesus faced all the physical limitations that we face. He became hungry, thirsty, and weary. When the soldiers scourged Him, He felt great _____. When nails pierced his hands and feet, He suffered and died. Because Jesus himself suffered, He was compassionate with those who suffer. When He saw the _____, he felt compassion and healed them. When he saw the multitude that was downcast and depressed like sheep without a shepherd, He felt compassion for them. When He lost His friend, Lazarus, He _____ with Mary and Martha.

When you hurt or struggle in life, the Lord knows. What can you do? First, look to _____ and how He handled suffering. Read how Christ entrusted Himself to God in 1 Peter 2:21-24. Entrust yourself to God. If you focus on God, you’ll take your focus _____ your suffering and pain. Jesus knew His present sufferings would _____, and God would receive Him home. On the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ called out His last words with a loud voice and said, “Father, into your _____ I commit my spirit!” (Luke 23:46). Put yourself into God’s hands. He cares for you.

Second, depend on the _____ of God. Paul faced a painful _____ and prayed to God. He learned something valuable. He describes his experience, “So to keep me from becoming conceited because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a _____ was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me (torment me), to keep me from becoming conceited. Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should _____ me. But he said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my _____ is made perfect in weakness.’ Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. For the sake of Christ, then, I am _____ with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong” (2 Corinthians 12:7-10).

Suffering causes us to _____ out to God, depending on His grace. We all face struggles and challenges bigger than we can handle _____. God’s grace doesn’t _____ every thorn, but it does empower us to endure that thorn in our own flesh. God’s grace is sufficient, and He can help you!

Third, consider the _____ of Job. Job suffered so greatly that he cursed the day of his birth and he wished he had _____ at birth. He _____ his children and all his possessions. Satan afflicted him with painful _____ from head to toe. His wife told him to “Curse God and die.” Even his friends were miserable comforters and said his own _____ brought on all his suffering; of course they did not. During all of this, Job could say, ““The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; _____ be the name of the LORD.’ In all this Job did not sin or charge God with wrong” (Job 1:21-22). When Job wanted to call God to account for his suffering, God didn’t answer him directly; but He did appear to him in a whirlwind and ask Job many questions that Job couldn’t answer. God revealed things “too wonderful for” Job, things “which (Job said) I did not know.” Even today, we don’t know all the reasons _____ things happen the way they do. Ultimately, God restored the fortunes of Job. He blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning. You too have another chapter in your life beyond this one. Don’t despair; hope in God.

Fourth, according to Galatians 1:4, Jesus “gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present _____ age, according to the will of our God and Father.” Jesus _____ people by forgiving sins and transforming lives. People can die to the _____ life of sin and live for righteousness. God’s grace _____ us to be zealous for good works. God comforts and teaches us how to _____ others. Many Christians who struggle with pain and problems spend their lives _____ others to cope with pain and problems, because of the love of God. “We love because he first loved us” (1 John 4:19). The heart of Christ is big, not small. He teaches us in Romans 12:15, “Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.” Christians have done so throughout their history, and they _____ for those who hurt.

The love of Christ has _____ thousands of hospitals, children’s homes, homes for seniors, and counseling centers. The love of Christ has _____ churches and Christians to help families with their problems, to help the addicted, and to minister to prisoners. They’ve done a thousand other things to _____ all people. Galatians 6:10 says, “So then, as we have opportunity, let us do _____ to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.” Our sorrows are not so big when we’re helping other people.

When we’re hurting, let’s keep our _____. The more we _____ God’s Word, the stronger our faith will become. The more we look to Jesus, fixing our _____ on Him, the more we can cope with the struggles of life. Hebrews 12:1-2 says, “Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us _____ with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the _____ that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.”

When we suffer, let’s look to the joy set before us. Suffering will not keep us out of _____, unless we give up on God. There’s great joy in heaven for the person who loves God. Paul said, “For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the _____ that is to be revealed to us” (Romans 8:18). We need Christ to save us and help us.

To be right with Christ, place your faith in Him; turn from the evil of sin to righteousness in repentance; confess Jesus Christ as the Son of God’ and be baptized into Christ. At the time of baptism, God will wash away your sins (Acts 22:16), give you newness of life (Romans 6:4), make you His child (Galatians 3:26-27), and add you to His church (Acts 2:47). Hold fast to the Lord throughout life; never give up on God. God wants you to be saved and to live in heaven with Him forever.
