From Friend to Friend

by Phil Sanders

This is the season of thanksgiving, and each day calls for us to remember our Father in heaven who loves us, blesses us, and gives us life. "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change" (James 1:17).

We have so much to be thankful for! We have dear family, faithful friends, a comfortable home, good food, reliable transportation, reasonable health, and a theological library that answers the great questions. We have Bibles (some in the original languages) that guide and assure our hearts in the will of God.

We have a Father in heaven who hears our prayers, an Advocate in the Righteous One who intercedes with the Father, and the Holy Spirit who gave us the written word. Because we have the word, we can have faith and hope. Because of the cross, we see God's love for us demonstrated. We have a Father, a family, a faith, and a future. We are of all men most blessed.

Sweet Jackie and I give thanks for all of you who love and support us. May the Lord grant you every good thing and enable you always to do His good will.

You Shall Remember

And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not (Deuteronomy 8:2).

The older we grow, the more memories good and bad fill our hearts. The best things to remember are those things God has done for us through the years. God gave us life, fed us, gave us His word, and protected us.

We must take care lest we forget the Lord our God. "Beware lest you say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth.' You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is this day" (Deuteronomy 8:17-18).

Everything we are, everything we have, and everything we accomplished, we possess because of the goodness of God. God has given us our talents and abilities. He opens doors and makes good things happen. In every circumstance good or bad, God has been by our side and helped us. Even when our hearts broke, He gave us comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3-5).

Though we were once a stranger to God, in Christ we are now able draw near through the blood of Jesus. "So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and are of God's household" (Ephesians 2:19). In Christ, God made us His children who can live with Him eternally. We must remember.

We remember all of you who have kept us in your prayers and in your budget. We have an ongoing need for financial support, since we are an active ministry. When you remember us and help us, it makes a difference all across the world.

The Lord be with you,
Phil Sanders

SPOTLIGHT

Fall has certainly arrived in Edmond, Oklahoma. After a blistering hot summer, the central US is enjoying much cooler weather. The trees are beautiful and GOD's power, as always, is apparent to even the casual observer.

In my position at SEARCH, I spend much of my time working with cable TV networks and radio stations. As a point of interest, did you know my father Mack Lyon was converted to the Lord's Church by listening to a preacher on a weekly radio broadcast from Dallas TX? SEARCH is now adding eight more radio stations to the weekly broadcast and looking for more.

At this time of year, I want to inform you of the potential tax advantage of donating to SEARCH from your IRA distributions. This information was sent to SEARCH from the Edward Jones agency. The name used for this advantage is qualified charitable distributions (QCDs), which l hope you find beneficial.

Qualified charitable distributions from Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) have been permanently extended. Individuals can donate up to $100,000 per year directly from a traditional or Roth IRA to qualifying charities.

Qualified charities include most public charities (including religious institutions, certain veterans' organizations and certain community foundations) that are eligible to receive tax—deductible contributions.

As eligible distributions are non-taxable federal and state taxes do not have to be withheld.

One of the key benefits of QCDs for those who don't itemize deductions is that if they are used as the funding source for charitable donations, the donor will receive tax benefits when there otherwise would have been none due to the use of the standard deduction.

Again, this information is food for thought. IN SEARCH OF THE LORD'S WAY and its employees cannot provide tax or legal advice. Please consult with your attorney or qualified tax advisor regarding your situation.

Thank you, thank you for your prayers and financial support of IN SEARCH OF THE LORD'S WAY!

In HIM…

Chris Lyon

DEC 6 – THE HOLY SPIRIT

Some call Him the Holy Ghost, others the Holy Spirit. Who is He? Is He a person or merely an influence? Many questions surround the nature of the Holy Spirit, but the best answers to any question always come from God's Word.

DEC 13 – ENCOURAGE ONE ANOTHER

Since hard times, disappointments, and heartaches come to all of us, we need to hear an encouraging word. "Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down, but a good word makes it glad" (Proverbs 12:25). Be an encourager.

DEC 20 – JESUS

From the time of His birth to His ascension and second coming, Jesus Christ is the most important and influential person in the history of the world. We will look at a brief glimpse of His remarkable life.

DEC 27 – WHERE I BELONG

Many in our world are searching for their identity or purpose in life. They wonder where they belong and why they exist. God is seeking you, and we pray you are seeking God. You can find who you are and where you belong.

From the Production Room

From Script to Broadcast:

Part 11 - Taking the Reigns

In 2019, the two of us took over the role of Director. We were blessed to have a mentor with many years of television experience to train us. As we learned more about the process he handed over more of the duties to us while he took a smaller role, eventually handing over control of production to us completely.

The Director is responsible for the final output of production. After all of the pre-checks are completed he will check to make sure that everything is up to our rigid standard of quality. Every other position during production is under his direction. He also maintains the timing of the program which, as we've discussed before, can be rather complicated at times. He is always keeping an eye on the cameras and an ear for audio. With two of us being fully trained and always involved in production we have someone readily available to double check timing and other aspects of the production to help make things go more smoothly. That's the essence of the Director's position. Next month we'll explore a little more about the hands on nature of the position.

From the Mailbag...

This month we will do something a little different for our mailbag letters. We have copied some of the Facebook messages that we get about our ministry. We don't always know where these messages come from, but we value each one of them. To God Be the Glory!

"Would be a good idea to connect with Mr Sanders anytime you have the chance ..he's on, in Search of the Lord's way, every Sunday and on U tube also. If you're looking for the truth, he's your man!"

"Blessings be upon both of you wonderful people. Prayers for souls to be saved as you teach and for your safety while there."

"This is so wonderful thank you for all your dedication and your hard work spreading the gospel and the good news of Christ Jesus."

"Thank you... I love to hear you preach....you make it plain and easy to understand! The singing is beautiful... I have learned a lot and I do enjoy watching ... Blessed are the feet of those that spreads the gospel…!"

"Thank you for your service. I look forward to your lessons every Sunday morning on WGT. May God continue to bless you and your ministry."

"Happy Birthday Philip Sanders. May God bless you with many more years in His service. I enjoy so much your lessons on, 'In Search of the Lord's Way!' Keep up your good work there and everywhere you go. Love you Brother and your family."

"In Search of the Lord's Way!" Keep up your good work there and everywhere you go. Love you Brother and your family.

"I too have been preaching from the New American Standard version for many years and have been also using the ESV. We love your presentation of the gospel and pray that In Search will continue to reach many people around the world with the good news."

"You are truly blessed, and we are truly blessed to Watch, Hear, and Read the Truth of God's Words as you present them. Your years of study, understanding, and humble presentations make clear the importance of doing God's Will according to His will."

"I am so happy for you and your blessed ministry! And a special Thank you to Jackie! But I still remember how selfishly sad I was when you left Concord Rd. I wished you the best but felt sorry for myself because I enjoyed working with you so much and enjoyed and learned so much from your sermons. May God continue to bless you and your ministry and your precious family in the years to come. Thank you for all that you do and have done."
